Dream visions, personal projections and collective utopias of the artist, in Murate Art District.

Date 07/09/2022

Dreams elaborated during the night, dreams in the drawer or personal and collective utopias, wishes for the planet or for the future. Jacopo Baboni Schilingi has collected each of these suggestions to transform them into the voices of a single great installation.

The opening of the exhibition is Thursday, September 8th at 7pm to the Third Garden (Lung.no Serristori), and from the next day it can be visited at the MAD Murate Art District (In case of bad weather opening takes place at the MAD at 6pm).

In the installation are collected the dreams of the people who participated in the open call last May and that the artist listened and divided into three audio tracks interpreted by the voices of Cristina Abati and Riccardo Rombi. The result is a flow of whispered dreams, coldly exposed or interpreted, lived, all accompanied by a video and an unpublished musical track, composed by the artist starting from the integration of the story with the heart breaths and the artist.
